ADVENT AIR LIMITED

("Advent Air" or the "Company")

EXPANDED CHARTER CONTRACT WITH ARGYLE DIAMOND MINES

The Board of Advent Air, which owns and operates Western Australian based Skywest Airlines Pty Ltd ("Skywest"), is pleased to announce that it has today agreed with Argyle Diamonds Limited ("Argyle"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Rio Tinto Plc, to extend the existing Argyle charter contract and add further flights:

- The revised contract should contribute an additional AUS$5m in revenue per annum to Skywest;
- The contract has been extended until October 2008; and
- Skywest will provide Argyle, with another four commuter flights a week.

Advent Air Chairman, Jeff Chatfield said:

"Skywest has a leading position servicing the resources sector in Western Australia and our growing fleet will enable us to build on this position.

"A key component of our strategy at the moment is to expand our regular charter services with major resource companies. Increasing the flight operations for Argyle is an excellent opportunity for Skywest to demonstrate further its ability in the resources sector,"
